MATTHEW 6:5 - 15

5 “And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward in full. 6 But when you pray, go into your room, close the door and pray to your Father, who is unseen. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you. 7 And when you pray, do not keep on babbling like pagans, for they think they will be heard because of their many words. 8 Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

MATTHEW 6:5-15

9 “This, then, is how you should pray:

“Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
10 your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

11 Give us today our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.

13 And lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from the evil one.

NIV

MATTHEW 6:5-15

14 For if you forgive other people when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.
15 But if you do not forgive others their sins, your Father will not forgive your sins.

Parable of the Prodigal Son shows the image of the deep forgiveness God offers to each one of us and we are to offer to others.

Forgiveness is not optional.

DELIVER

US FROM

EVIL

Jesus prayed the truest and deepest form of these words in the Garden of Gethsemane and God's answer was no.

“For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.” -Ephesians 6:12

PRAYER

Write your blessed name, O Lord, upen my heart, there to remain
so incredibly engraved,
that no prosperity,
no adversity,
shall ever move me
from your love.

Be to me
a strong tower of defense,
a comforter in tribulation,
a deliverer in distress,
a very present help in trouble.
Shepherd me through the many temptations and dangers of this life.
Lead me to your kingdom.

Amen.
